

Justice for All

We live in a country that allows people their basic freedom, yet some people still suffer from injustice, prejudice, and a lack of freedom. Why is this? Complete the statements below with your own ideas. Discuss your ideas with family members at home.

1. To me justice is

2. When I think of justice for all, I think of

3. To me, being prejudiced means

4. Some people are not free in this country because

5. These individuals could be free if

6. I can help ensure justice for all by

7. All people have dignity because
